Read the following passage, then answer the questions:

John was a very rich and selfish boy. One day, he told his classmates that he was going to bring an enormous box of sweets. He wanted to make everybody jealous, but he was so greedy that he ate half of the sweets on his way to school.

“Never mind,” he thought, “It’s still more sweets than anyone else has!” But John was not careful with his belongings and by the time he got to school he had already lost the box of sweets. A girl called Sarah found the box of sweets. She knew that it must be the one that John had been talking about. None of the other children were rich enough to afford so many sweets. When she arrived at school, she returned the box to John. He was excited but saw an opportunity. He wanted to show everyone a full box, not a half-empty one.

John thanked Sarah but then immediately went to the teacher. “Mrs. Brown,” said John, “I lost my box of sweets and Sarah found it, but half of the sweets have gone! She must have eaten them!” Mrs. Brown knew her students very well and was sure that polite and responsible Sarah had not eaten John’s sweets. “How many sweets were in the box when you found it, Sarah?” she asked. “It was half full, Mrs. Brown.”

“Are you sure, Sarah?” “Yes, Mrs. Brown,” she replied.

“She’s lying!” shouted John. “It was full!” he said.

“Are you sure, John?” asked Mrs. Brown. “Absolutely!” replied John.

“Well then,” said Mrs. Brown, “The half-empty box of sweets can’t be yours, John. If anyone finds a full box of sweets, then we will make sure it is returned to you.”
